

COMPETITION CASTELLINCORTO 2019

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Art. 1 – Castellincorto is a competition reserved to short films directed by students from audiovisual/film schools and enrolled for the current or the preceding academic year, and short films whose subject is children's rights. Only films finished after January 1st 2018 will be accepted.

For exception, the festival allows him-self to select short film directed during 2017.

Art. 2 – Short films realized for the attainment of a BA or a MA degree (or equivalent certificates) are admitted. However, all kinds of short films made in a film school, are eligible if they comply with Art. 1.

Art. 3 – The maximum length is 18 minutes (including titles and credits). However, the Festival is free to select short films that are longer than this.

Art. 4 – To submit a short film, please use the platform filmfreeway.com from June 1st to August 15th, 2019.

Art. 5 – The film director is required to send a copy of his/her current Student ID card or a proof of school attendance by e-mail to castellincorto@castellinaria.ch. Only the submissions which include Student ID, will be accepted.

Art. 6 – Documentation submitted to the Festival by mail will not be returned.

Art. 7 – The director, the distributor and all the co-producers of the selected short film, allow the Festival to screen the film during the Castellincorto competition, but also to show it in one other screening in a Swiss high-school between November 14th 2019 and November 14th 2020 (the precise date of these screenings can be established together).

Art. 8 – Only fully completed submissions are accepted for pre-selection.

Art. 9 – By submitting the short film you accept that part of this work (10-15 seconds max.) is might be used by the Festival to promote the event (e.g. in a trailer of the selected short films) and that it can be published online on the Festival's official website and/or on social media.